

REMARKS

The above amendment and these remarks are filed in response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment, dated 19 Oct 2004.

Examiner Interview

Applicants' attorney expresses appreciation for courtesy extended by Examiner Raquel Alvarez in a telephone interview on 27 October 2004. At that time the undersigned clarified the requirements for correcting the errors in the previous amendment and determined that page 25 of that amendment was missing, at least in part, from the Office copy.

Comments

The Examiner requests that the identifier [previously amended] be changed to [previously presented]. Applicants have done so.

The Examiner also requests that claims 44-62 be listed in the listing of claims. On applicants copy of page 25 of the amendment of 7/14/2004 these claims were included, as follows:

"44. [[Withdrawn -- Currently amended]..."

"Claims 45-62. [Canceled]"

In the above referenced interview, applicants' attorney determined that the Examiner's copy of the amendment filed on 7/14/2004 is missing page 25, at least in part. But, no matter. This response has the matter correctly stated.

In the following table, revised from the table originally provided in the Response/Amendment filed 4/20/04, applicants set forth their understanding of the renumbering and invention group assignments:

Current Claim Number	Original Claim Number	Invention Group
1	1	I

45-62	canceled without prejudice	various

Applicants urge that the above amendments be entered and the case passed to issue with claims 1-7, 9-21, 23, 26, 28, 40-41.

Claims 45-62 have been canceled without prejudice, inasmuch as the subject matter of these claims remains in the case, as is set forth in the above chart.

CONCLUSION

The Application is believed to be in condition for allowance and such action by the Examiner is urged. Should differences remain, however, which do not place one/more of the remaining claims in condition for allowance, or if this Amendment is deemed Non-Compliant under 37 CFR 1.121, the Examiner is requested to phone the undersigned at the number provided below for the purpose of providing constructive assistance and suggestions in accordance with M.P.E.P. Sections 707.02(j) and 707.03 in order that allowable claims can be presented in a compliant manner for examination on the merits, thereby placing the Application in condition for allowance without further proceedings being necessary.

Sincerely,

E. B. Boden, et al.
